

Product Change Notification

PCN No: 2021-PCB-12

Date of Notification: October 5, 2021

Notification Type: Product Change: Marking method

Products Impacted: MHM series connectors

Part Numbers Affected: All MHM series part numbers

Dear Valued Customer,

This PCN will serve as notification of a change to the method of marking the contact locations and keying orientation numbers and letters on the subject MHM series connectors. The contact locations which were previously ink marked will in future be laser marked as shown below.

Note: Part number, date code, and other identifying information will continue to be laser marked on the insulator, as they have been in the past.
